Kendra Erika

Kendra Erika is a South Florida native singer/songwriter and Billboard recording artist. Kendra's Deep House/Pop recording style developed from the eclectic vibes of her surrounding musical culture and community. Focused on being truthful to her core artistry and authentic to who she is as a person, Kendra brings a dynamic cinematic experience to everything she produces.

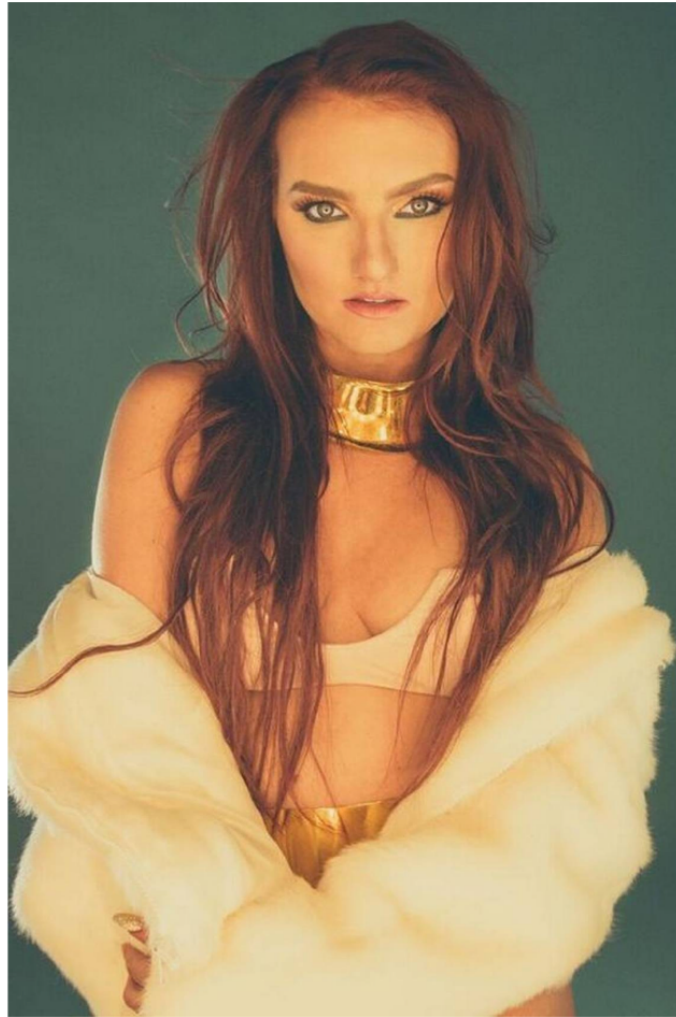

In December 2016, Kendra hit the Top 10 for 14 weeks on the Billboard Dance Club chart claiming the #9 spot with her breakthrough hit single "Oasis." Oasis strikes the perfect blend of cinematic glamour that mingles beautifully amongst lusty vintage pop chords. The single is a unique blend of Kendra's personal inspiration, innate sense of rhythm and tone and the inspiration of pop great Lana Del Rey and the musical emotions behind her work. Kendra's goal was to reveal a compelling image within a fresh sound mix. An Oasis isn't merely supposed to be seen. It's exactly what Kendra creates with all of her music – a vision.

In Summer 2017, Kendra hit the Billboard Dance Club chart claiming the #6 spot with her hit single "Under My Skin" which is an alluring blend of smooth vocals, poignant lyrics and fresh, playful but precise production, making up a diverse yet consistent and edgy sound. While Kendra plans to release her 1st album in early 2018, she's already ramped up for pop deep house success in the U.S. through her strong vocals, performance abilities and focused work ethic.

Most recently, Kendra has released her original track and video, "Sublime", a psychedelically poetic club track about taboo love. The song has a sensuous vibe-y lounge groove, built around a continuous tempo and looming ghost voice that harkens back to early 80's house music.

Shortly after launching Sublime in November 2017, Kendra opened for award-winning international pop-artist, Jason Derulo, during an exclusive private benefit concert in Miami, Florida.

Could Boca Raton singer be the next Ariana Grande?

BY JOSE LAMBIET

Could Boca Raton produce another pop star?

In the wake of Ariana Grande's rise to worldwide fame, a virtual unknown who also hails from Boca has just hit ninth on this week's Billboard Dance Music chart.

With a song she co-wrote and sings, Kendra Erika, 23, finds herself in a top 10 that includes mega stars Sia, Ed Sheeran, Niall Horan and Britney Spears.

"It's freaky," said the singer, whose full name is Kendra Erika Fulmer. "That means that just

For more than a year, Kendra Erika has sung on Thursday nights at Vino Wine Bar and Tapas in Boca Raton. She covers jazz standards, Frank and Ella and all the favorites, standing in the corner with a sultry sound that goes well with a nice red. But if you wait long enough, the mood segues into something more urgent, more current, pulsating with a beat that commands you to dance.

“She starts out with familiar songs, light and refreshing,” says Vino manager Kait Watson. “But around 11 o’clock, wow, does she turn it up!”

And now, that sound, and that singer, has reached beyond the walls of the wine bar, far past Boca and into the top 50 on the Billboard charts. After years of playing in and around the area, the singer is finding new opportunities to keep the beat.

“Every oyster has a new pearl,” says Erika, whose single “Oasis” is currently number 47 on the Billboard Dance Club Songs chart. “Every thing is about progress.”

The song, released on Dauman Music/Big Deal/Sony/Red, was produced by Grammy-winner Damon Sharpe, who has worked with Jennifer Lopez, Kelly Rowland, Natalie Cole and Boca Raton’s Ariana Grande, among others. And it was remixed by production

Kendra Erika makes an explosive breakthrough with her debut single "Oasis." To see the lyric video for "Oasis" go to https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tBm_l0HD_uU.

Released today on Dauman Music/Big Deal/Sony/Red, the track was produced by GRAMMY Award winning producer Damon Sharpe, who has written and/or produced for a wide array of pop artists, including Jennifer Lopez, Ariana Grande, Kylie Minogue, Kelly Rowland, Monica, 98 Degrees, Anastacia, Natalie Cole and Ginuwine. "Working with Kendra Erika was an absolute pleasure", says Damon. "Her haunting, smoky tone brings a cool kid aesthetic to "Oasis."

The powerhouse production/remixing team The Perry Twins played a key role in the final production of the single. Their remixes include tracks for Lopez, Christina Aguilera, Beyonce, Lolene, Tony Moran featuring Frenchie Davis, Kristine W and Josie Cotton. Commenting on their contributions to "Oasis," Doug and Derek Perry say that they "were drawn to (the song) from the first time we heard it, so we were excited to remix it! We love Kendra's voice and the lyrics are very cool and unique."

A native of South Florida, Kendra's Deep House/Pop recording style developed from the eclectic vibes of her surrounding musical culture and community. Focused on being truthful to her core artistry and authentic to who she is as a person, Kendra brings a dynamic cinematic experience to everything she produces. Prior to the release of "Oasis," she created a widespread buzz with her popular videos for "Miami Love" and "The Truth Never Lies."

The message Kendra imparts on "Oasis" goes beyond the surface: "Get Lost in the Oasis" finds her reminding listeners that there is always a silver lining in any situation. Because it can be hard to find and achieve, the "Oasis" should be celebrated and never taken for granted.

The single is a unique blend of Kendra's personal inspiration, innate sense of rhythm and tone and the inspiration of pop great Lana Del Rey and the musical emotions behind her work.

Kendra Erika's tune reaches top 50 on Billboard Dance Club Songs chart

JANUARY 10, 2017

The most dedicated fans of Boca pop singer-songwriter Kendra Erika have followed her career since she won a youth talent show at 13. All grown up now and cultivating the image of an updated Bond girl, she still entertains at fundraisers.

But with the December release of her new single "Oasis," she has taken the next step musically, writing a song produced by Grammy Award winner Damon Sharpe, who calls her "amazing." His bio lists Boca's own Ariana Grande, plus Jennifer Lopez and other famous collaborations.

After writing since age 16, Erika wrote "Oasis" in October in Sharpe's Los Angeles studio. "I was in the valley and looking out the window and I was inspired by the desert," she said. "That idea just came to me and we went with it." She laid down the tracks for vocals and it all come together easily.

The tune reached No. 47 on Billboard's Dance Club Songs chart for the week of Jan. 14. "It's always exciting to have something on the charts," Sharpe said from Los Angeles. "She's been working hard to get to where she is. It's just the beginning."

Jason Derulo parties with moneyed Miamians for Boys & Girls Club event

BY JOSE LAMBIET
jose@gossipextra.com

There was something subtly poetic about hip-hop star and Hollywood Boys & Girls Club alum Jason Derulo getting introduced to extremely rich people raising money for the after-school nonprofit Saturday night in Miami, and immediately launching into his anthem: You know what to do with that big fat butt!

Actually, Derulo's hourlong concert in the grand ballroom of the Mandarin Oriental in downtown Miami was good, clean fun for 400 or so supporters of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Broward County who were in town for its 30th Annual Derulo, who grew up in the Marti Huizenga Boys & Girls Club in Hollywood, told the story about being on the stage of the same event in 2000 and singing with the then-featured entertainer, Michael Bolton. Derulo, then 11 years old, stole the show in a duet of the wholesome "I Believe I Can Fly."

The Skinny on Kendra Erika

Your week couldn't have been as bad as Kathy Griffin's, but if it was anywhere close and you need something new to decompress to this weekend, check out the latest jam from pop princess Kendra Erika. It was the song that took over gay dance floors this past Memorial Day Weekend, and the music video is out now.

Written by Kendra Erika and Grammy Award winner Damon Sharpe and produced by Sharpe, Jason Dauman, and Eric Sanicola, "Under My Skin" is a hypnotic Big Room track that is both playful and alluring with sweeping build-ups and hard drops.

"I love the whole 'let's see if we get caught' theme in the song," says Kendra Erika. "Young people today feel invincible when it comes to love and life and if you think about it, we should, because we're still discovering who we are and where we stand.

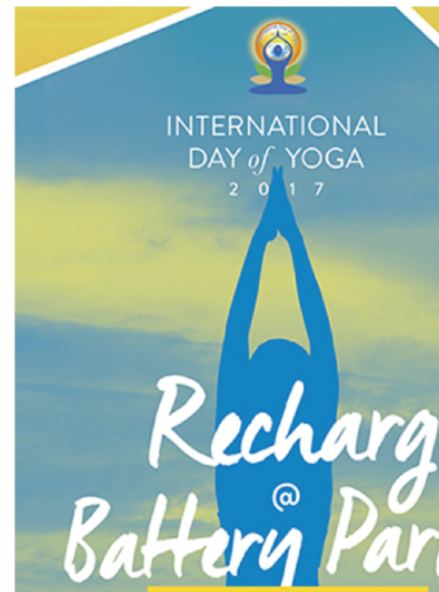

"I think everyone can relate because we're all young and stupid at some point in our lives," she laughs.

Vintage Life Magazine caught up with glamorous singer Kendra Erika to find out what she has been up to...

Thanks for chatting! You appeared in Vintage Life a while ago; what have you been up to since then?

After Miami Love, I was introduced to some very talented writers and producers, which led to me really loving the deep house/EDM world. My single Oasis, which I wrote and recorded with Damon Sharpe, reached the Top 10 on the US Billboard Dance Club Charts. I will be releasing a follow up track called "Under My Skin" in April. It will be available to purchase on iTunes and Amazon and I just cannot wait to share it.

How would you say that your musical performances have changed over the past few years?

Since I have gone down the dance road, my performances have been a bit more upbeat and more DJ influenced. A lot of the world right now is being influenced by this EDM/deep house movement, but I always keep my artistic integrity in making it timeless by keeping that classic

Fort Lauderdale treatment center beats addiction with music

JUNE 5, 2017, 4:07 PM

In a Fort Lauderdale office building, pop singer Kendra Erika stands on a dimly lit stage at Recovery Unplugged.

About 30 millennials who are fighting drug and alcohol addiction fill the audience. They listen as Erika's silken voice engulfs a therapy session at the treatment center.

"You have a sense of authenticity and human vulnerability," Erika tells the group. "It's so refreshing to see people go through a legitimate growth process."

Visiting with Erika is The Time's lead singer Morris Day, a friend and colleague of F
